

Aura 20.11.2024

The first singles, Musgo and Mundo, released on the 10th and 14th of November respectively.

The full EP, Musgo, came out on November 20th.

Musgo

I am a Colombian songwriter and vocalist based in Berlin, making music influenced by various genres rooted in traditional Latin styles.

My second EP, Musgo, is an exploration of meeting points. Musgo is a meeting point between acoustic and digital sounds and existing between human form and nature. Track two, Mundo, brings together feelings of melancholia and love. Finally, Sala de Espera balances sounds of flamenco and bossa nova, meeting between hopelessness and dissatisfaction.

Press

Following my first EP, Mujerplantaeco, I was featured in IndieRocks Mexico's series for early career artists, "Buenas Nuevas", as well as appearing on the Unsigned Berlin podcast, and being featured in distributor MusicHub's release spotlight!

Throughout the last 6 months, my music has appeared on radio stations including:

Refuge Worldwide (Berlin-based community radio)

Radio UdeG Zapotlán El Grande (Guzman-based radio XHUGG)

Radio Universidad de Nariño (Student radio in Pasto for which I also appeared for an interview)

KTRU 96.1 FM Rice Radio (Texas-based student radio)

RBB Fritz Unsigned (Berlin and Brandenburg public radio)

Additionally, I featured in several playlists including Verano Entre Tropicós and Mujeres que Hacen Ruido (Women Making Noise).

"The EP opens with 'Mujer' which, from the first notes, lets Aura's hypnotic voice float through the music, and brings a melody that shimmers with calm, fate and, eventually, questioning."

- Vanessa Vega in Indie Rocks Magazine (translated from Spanish)
